HYQUEST CONSULTING AWARDS SCHOLARSHIPS TO LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS

Company Recognizes Deserving Local College-Bound Students

Haymarket, VA, July 19, 2018 — HyQuest Consulting Solutions, LLC announced today that it has awarded scholarships to two outstanding students through its HyQuestHOPE program. The awards were made at Battlefield High School in Manassas, Virginia, during the school's annual Senior Awards Night presentations.

The two scholarship awardees are:

Destiny Ball, who received the High Caliber “HCS” Book Scholarship in the amount of $1,000. She will attend Hampton University and plans to major in cellular and molecular biology. Destiny is the daughter of Dorothy and Wayne Ball.

Imani Haskell, who received the HyQuest Award in the amount of $500. Imani will attend Old Dominion University. She is the daughter of Dana and Ray Robertson.

HyQuest President and CEO Jameece Pinckney said, “I am pleased to award scholarships to these two dedicated young women, who have distinguished themselves through their strong work ethic and determination to succeed as they pursue their educational goals. Destiny and Imani demonstrate great potential to become leaders in their chosen fields.”
